"The best way to make children good is to make them happy." ~Oscar Wilde

Dear Parents,

Students returned to school after a long summer break, looking forward to what was in store for them at school. And they were not disappointed as the month was full of excitement where they were engaged in different activities to keep them occupied. The students took pride in presenting their holiday homework that they had done with a lot of enthusiasm and creativity. They presented their 3D masks of Indian heritage which were a part of their holiday homework in a marching parade with a lot of zeal and excitement. They marched from the school playground till reception and then went to their classrooms. Students also participated in an Intra Class Poem Recitation on "Our National Symbols".

In English, the concept of Doing Words was introduced through the activity of 'Simon says' for better understanding. Students went to the school playground where the teacher instructed them to act in specific ways. If Simon said jump, then students had to jump and so on. In conclusion, students created their own action hero and listed all the actions that an action hero can perform.

In Math the concept of Addition was introduced with the help of number lines and abacus beads. A number line is a straight line with numbers placed at equal intervals along its length. It helps us see the order of numbers and is a useful tool for learning addition. Students had to identify and locate the numbers on the number line. They were given addition sums and they had to solve it using a number line. In EVS students were taught about community helpers with activities like Who is it? and chits in a bowl. Teachers made a few community helpers on chits and put them in a bowl. Students had to pick a chit and identify the community helper written and match it with its picture.

Father's Day is a heartfelt occasion that brings father and child together to celebrate and appreciate the pivotal role fathers play in our lives. It is a day to show love, respect, and gratitude, creating lasting memories and strengthening family bonds. To celebrate these thoughts, Father's Day was celebrated with enthusiasm with them participating in various races like stepping stones and hurdle race. Fathers were full of energy and excitedly participated in tug of war. As the celebrations went on, greeting cards made by the students were presented to their fathers, wherein they expressed their love, affection, and respect.

"A book is a gift you can open again and again"

Teachers began Book Week by explaining the value of books to the children. They had fun talking about their favourite story books. Further to foster the love of reading in students, Book Week was celebrated from July 12th to 19th. On Day 1 students created a bookmark excitedly followed by Swap and Read Activity wherein each student brought one story book from their home and swapped it with their friend to read. On day 3 students came dressed up as a character from their favourite story book and also spoke a few lines in it. Students also participated in the Intra-Class Poem Recitation Competition wherein they recited poems on the importance of books.

To inculcate the habit of reading students had D.E.A.R (Drop Everything and Read) during the Book week. During their class, students were asked to stop everything they were doing and had to read their story books for 15 minutes. This helped students to enhance their habit of reading at school and home.

The value of the month for July was Kindness. The meaning of the same was explained to the students and the students did different acts of kindness at home and in and around their surroundings. Students made vase of kindness wherein they wrote one act of kindness on a flower and put it in the class for all to see and learn.

Our students made rakhis for soldiers stationed at the borders. These handmade tokens are not just symbols of a festival but heartfelt expressions of gratitude and support for the brave men who protect our country.

To acknowledge overall excellence and to recognize the achievement of our brilliant students, the proficiency ceremony was celebrated in the month of July. Our Honourable Principal ma'am felicitated the students who had shown overall excellent performances in their last academic session. Students got a lot of encouragement for their hard work as they witnessed the proficiency ceremony.
